Fund Appeals For Volunteers
An urgent appeal for 1000 volunteer workers in the Centinela Valley, Torrance, South Bay, Gardena, Westchester and Lomita areas was issued today by Mrs. Edward Schwartz of Torrance, Southern area vice-chairman and Harold Wolpa 6628 W. 87th St., Centinela Valley chairman of the 1959 United Jewish Welfare Fund campaign.
"As the citywide drive enters its third week, it has become apparent that we cannot approach our $7,500,000 goal unless we have more volunteers immediately," stated Mrs. Schwartz. The drive has class were taken by the council Tuesday when it voted to send representatives to a May 6 meeting of residents in the Alondra Park area to discuss annexation of the area to the city.

IN OTHER action, the council approved sending of delegates to Sacramento April 30 to appear before the California Highway Commission in an effort to promote an acceleration of the San Diego Freeway construction. This will be the third trip to Sacramento in as many years by Torrance and nearby cities in an effort to get the freeway constructed at least to the Harbor Freeway at 190th St.
The council also heard a suggestion by J. A. Beasley that a study be started on plans for a library and auditorium on the civic center at Maple Ave. and Torrance Blvd.

Center Renamed Temple Beth Torah
The Gardena Valley Jewish Center has been renamed The Southwest Temple Beth Torah, according to Rabbi Henry Kraus.
Passover services will be held at the temple, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Wednesday, April 29, at 8 p.m., noting the eighth day of the holiday.
BAPTIST TOPIC
"Seven Wonders of Heaven" will be the subject of the Rev. Mr. W. F. Alexander, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gardena at 158th and Brighton Ave. at the Sunday services. Sunday school for all ages will be held at 9:45, worship services at 11 a.m.
